

War Child Australia Schools' Newsletter

October 2005

I hope this newsletter finds you all well and surviving fourth term as well as can be expected!

I'd like to congratulate all of the team that has been involved in the publication of the two recently released anthologies, Girls' Night In 4 and Kids' Night In 2. Again both books are chock full of stories to make you laugh and you will be pleased to know that again, all royalties from sales of Kids' Night In 2 will go to War Child Australia, with royalties from Girls' Night In 4 shared between War Child and No Strings. Both books should make great Christmas presents, hint hint.

The Adult Reading Challenge is also back bigger and better than ever. This year, the State Library of Queensland has generously sponsored the challenge and prizes are as follows:

- First: Vouchers/books to the value of $250
- Second: Vouchers/books to the value of $150
- Third: Vouchers/books to the value of $100

Please see

for more details.

For Melburnians, there are details of a dinner with author Nick Earls outlined below. Anyone is welcome to attend. Please RSVP to Reina Phung at Mill Park Secondary College on 9407 9850 by Thursday 3rd November/

There will be some more exciting announcements coming soon, so stay tuned for more details.

Best wishes,

Judith Way
